

THE BEST LITTLE WHOREHOUSE IN TEXAS

Book by Larry L. King and Peter Masterson

Music and Lyrics by Carol Hall

MEN

Sheriff Ed Earl Dodd

40's/ 50's baritone character actor. Big tall cowboy type. Crusty Good old Texan who curses a lot, but has a soft spot for Miss Mona.

Melvin P. Thorpe

30's/40's baritone character actor who moves well. Strong comic televangelist preacher-type. Crusader with a big ego (and short stature a plus)

C.J. Scruggs/ Chip Brewster/ Governor

30's/40's baritone character actor who moves well. CJ is the sidekick to the mayor...doubles as the Governor who can "side step" anything.

Bandleader/ Edsel Mackey

20's/30's country singer narrator...doubles as the newspaper editor with a liberal streak who conforms to local way of thinking so as not to "rock the boat."

Mayor Rufus Poindexter/ Senator Wingwoah

50's/60's non-singing character role. Town mayor and automobile salesman...doubles as the Senator who knows how to play "both sides of the Road."

Male Ensemble

strong singer/ dancer/ actors to play Aggie Football team, townspeople, reporters, patrons of the Chicken Ranch, etc.

WOMEN

Mona

40's/50's character actress to carry show. Alto voice, Tammy Wynette type. Owner/operator of the Chicken Ranch. Business woman who also plays house mother to her girls.

Jewel

50's African American woman character actress with Mezzo belt voice. Sassy and respectful. Miss Mona's confidant and housekeeper at the Chicken Ranch.

Shy

18-27 years old. Mezzo Soprano with a strong belt voice. Young country girl, fresh off the farm. Gawky and unsure of herself, sweet and inexperienced.

Doatsey Mae

30's plain and respectable waitress at the Texas Twinkle Café. Alto. Wise cracking waitress, and has a sexy side that nobody sees.

Angel

20's/ 30's singer/ dancer with strong belt voice. Obvious Texas whore exterior, but gentle inside.

Miss Wulla Jean

Older character role. Former Madam. Strict.

Female Ensemble

strong singer/ dancer/ actors to play the girls of the Chicken Rancy, singers, townspeople, cheerleaders, etc.
